WHY SHOULD YOU PARTICIPATE IN ARBITRATION COMPETITION

Arbitration is often less costly than court litigation, primarily due to the compressed schedule for the completion of discovery and trial. Further, Arbitration also allows for speedy resolution while maintaining confidentiality. The judge is usually assigned by the court without input from the parties. Arbitration normally allows parties to select or participate in the selection of the decision-maker.

Arbitration is becoming increasingly popular and the new generation must be well equipped, with practical exposure to Arbitration and a good understanding of how it works.
